

Technical Designer | Product Development

Description:

Reporting to Product Development manager, the Technical Designer will be responsible for projects and deliverables in collaboration with product development team. Candidate will also act as liaison between the Product Development and Marketing department to coordinate new product launches and specifications publication.

Responsibilities:

- Prepare product technical illustrations, product rendering and specifications for Marketing literature.
- Responsible for producing and maintaining product technical specifications, Bill of Material (BOM) and installation manuals throughout product life cycle.
- Participate in continuous workflow improvement activities.

Skills & Requirements:

- DEC degree in Industrial Design.
- Minimum of 2 years of related experience in Industrial design, graphic design and/or technical illustration.
- Experience in lighting industry an asset.
- Proficiency in the following CAD tools: Rhino3D, Solidworks, AutoCAD.
- Highly skilled in the following 2D graphic and 3D rendering tools: Adobe Creative Suite | (InDesign, Illustrator & Photoshop), KeyShot render.
- Ability to illustrate products assembly through compelling graphic.
- Good knowledge of assembly and part detailing.
- A team player who thrives in collaborative setting and has solid communication skills.
- English and French verbal and written are essential.